

THE WEEK IN SPORT.

Two Local Road Races Were Necessarily Postponed.

ANOTHER POSTPONEMENT LIKELY

For the Intelligencer Event—The Wheeling-Pittsburgh Road Race to be Run Next Saturday—Sanger's Work at Boston on Decoration Day, The Hot Fight in the National League—Yesterday's Games.

The oldest inhabitant, who usually is able to keep up at the front with a story of "ye olden time" that eclipses anything that is of modern origin, is completely dumfounded by the weather which has been experienced in this section the latter part of May, and is free to acknowledge that the record in that respect has been laid on the shelf.

The weather was peculiarly unfortunate on account of the many athletic events that were scheduled to take place this week. High water and rain got away with the Linsly boys' field day until last Tuesday afternoon when the exercises took place between showers, and had hardly been completed when it commenced to pour down, knocking the lining out of all prospects for the Intelligencer road race on Decoration Day. Again, the rain continuing, the races for the benefit of the City Hospital were knocked out, and scheduled for to-day, and now another postponement, an indefinite one, is announced. The road race of the of the Pittsburgh Press was slated to be contested this afternoon, but a special dispatch received yesterday announces a postponement until next Saturday. Lastly, there seems to be no prospect of the weather clearing in time for the Intelligencer race on Tuesday, so that it is now more than probable that another postponement, to Friday of next week, may be necessary. If this is considered necessary the announcement will be published in Monday's paper.

The peculiar part of this bad spell of weather is the fact that it is almost local, the only other city affected being Pittsburgh. To the north, east, west and south the athletic events scheduled for Decoration Day were "pulled off" without interference on the part of the elements.

Whether the road race takes place Tuesday or Friday, it is sure to be one of the hottest contested athletic events that have ever been seen. The work of the handicapping committee, considering everything, is thought to be first class, and to foretell the name of the winner is like picking needles in a haystack. The truth is, every man entered has a chance, accidents barred, to come in ahead at the finish, and well-informed people are predicting that the winner will not have much of a lead when he crosses the tape. The race will be a "scrap" from start to finish.

The cycling track racing season opened up on Decoration Day at Waltham, near Boston, and at Worcester. Sanger, Tyler, Bald and Taylor were at Waltham, while John S. Johnson, the fast Minneapolis man, and Titus were at Worcester. Wally Sanger showed himself far the superior of the other cracker, breaking the mile competition record held by George Taylor, and placing it at 2:13. Taylor's performance was 2:21. It is early to predict upon whom the great Zimmerman's mantle will fall, but from Sanger's beginning this season he seems the most likely aspirant, with Johnson, Taylor, Bald, Dirnberger and others bunched a little in the rear. Harry Tyler appeared at the Waltham races, but was clearly out of form.

In the base ball arena, the Pittsburgh club opened up the week by displacing the Cleveland Spiders, and it looked as though the Pirates would hold on to first place, but the game lost to Washington yesterday by Pittsburgh put her in second place, and Cleveland by halving the champion Bostonians goes back to first position in the race. Only a single point separates the two teams. It is possible that before the end of the eastern series one of the eastern teams will go to the front.

Triangle Winnings.

Messrs. George W. Johnson's Sons received a telegram from the makers of the Triangle wheel, which is given below:

"Triangles secured first time, first place, third time, special prize and four others in the Cleveland road race, and three firsts and five seconds in the track races, Decoration Day."

MARTIN'S FERRY.

Haps and Mishaps in the Thriving City Across the River.

R. C. Montgomery says that the Poor-man men placed his name on their ticket for delegate in the Third ward without authority, and he will not run. His father, B. J. Montgomery, told the Danford men not to put his name on their ticket, but since it has been done he will go to the convention if he wins.

Maggie Gilmore, who shot Robert Corbett, was taken to the county jail yesterday. Dr. John Hervey says there is no chance in Corbett's condition.

Rev. William Lewis left yesterday for Talmage, O., to attend the convention of the Congregational churches. He will preach there Sunday.

The indications are that a good-sized vote will be polled at the congressional primaries in Martin's Ferry this afternoon and it may exceed that of two

What TRIANGLE BICYCLES Won at Cleveland!

THE PEERLESS MANUFACTURING COMPANY,
MAKERS OF TRIANGLE BICYCLES,
OFFICE AND FACTORY, LISBON ST. AND C. & P. R. R.
Cleveland, Ohio, June 1, 1894.

GEO. W. JOHNSON'S SONS, WHEELING, W. VA.
GENTLEMEN—We are pleased to inform you that "Triangle" wheels captured all the important places and prizes in yesterday's annual Decoration Day Road Race at Cleveland, and also in the track races in the afternoon.
Out of a total of ten Triangle wheels in the road race, riders of our wheel secured first time, first place, special prize for best novice time, third time and four other place prizes. In the afternoon "Triangle" wheels secured three firsts and five seconds.
The winner of the time prize in the road race was G. D. Comstock, of Cleveland, who started from scratch. He rode one of our twenty-five pound machines and covered the twenty-five mile course, fifteen miles of which is over very rough and hilly country roads, in the remarkable time of one hour, fourteen minutes, twenty-one seconds. The winner of the first place prize and the winners of the other prizes referred to above rode "Triangle" machines of the same weight. This should convince the most sceptical that our machines possess speed and strength and are all we claim for them.
Very truly yours,
THE PEERLESS MANUFACTURING CO.
